"Victims of Tyranny."

The Times charges Gen. Blair with "violating truth" when he speaks of the South as the victims of tyranny. Let us see. Is it not tyrannical to keep the ballot from one hundred thousand white men in Tennessee, fifty thousand whites in Missouri, and from 175,000 voters in Virginia, 70,000 voters in Mississippi and 65,000 in Texas? All these States,—but for this tyranny,—would cast their ballots for Seymour and Blair, and hence the tyranny itself. Again: Is it not tyranny for Congress to regulate suffrage in the Southern States, and to distinguish between suffrage in the Northern and Southern States, as openly advocated in the Republican Chicago Platform? And is it not tyranny to admit Senators and Representatives in Congress under a Constitution rejected by a majority of the people of Alabama, when that people were told they should have no representation unless they adopted the Constitution which had been submitted to them? Mississippi did just what Alabama did, and Mississippi is not allowed Senators or Representatives in Congress. Are not the Constitutions forced on the people by Congress, which Constitutions impose infamous test oaths, requiring the equality of all people South, tyranny? In Arkansas and other States no man who cannot take the test oath,—which extends also to an oath that no part was taken by the citizen in the rebellion,—is allowed to practice law, or medicine, preach the Gospel, hold any office, or do any intellectual service. He may grow cotton and corn, and raise hogs for Radicals to eat, but all else is unlawful. The test oath of Missouri, until upset by the United States Supreme Court, arrested ministers of the Gospel, as in the case of Father Cummings, and because Gen. Blair would not subscribe to it, after battling for his State and the Union, through the war, he was not allowed to vote. Read the acts of the Virginia Convention, where 640,000 white people are made the hewers of wood of 320,000 negroes. Behold negro Policemen and Justices of the Peace in North Carolina. Read the orders of Gens. Sickles and Canby in South Carolina, and of Gen. Reynolds, in Texas, just received. In no civilized country has more tyranny been practiced, or more degradation imposed upon a helpless people than this, and the editor of the Times has too much intelligence not to know it.—New York Express.

THE LATE EPISCOPAL GENERAL CONVENTION.—The Episcopal Convention of the churches in the United States has closed its labors in New York harmoniously, the vexed subject of ritualism having been disposed of by the adoption of resolutions offered by Rev. Dr. Littlejohn, requesting the House of Bishops to set forth for consideration, by the next general convention, such additional rubrics in the book of common prayer as in their judgment may be deemed necessary, and that in the meanwhile, in all matters doubtful, reference should be made to the ordinary, (the person having ordinary jurisdiction in causes ecclesiastical, generally the bishop,) and that no charges should be made against the counsel and judgment of bishops.

The interest which the ritualistic question excites may be estimated by the fact that one of the New York journals gives eight columns to conversations with clergymen of the Episcopal and Roman Catholic churches upon that subject, and to a description of St. Alban's, in New York, which is one of the churches in that city which has become celebrated by what are called ritualistic observances. The number of Episcopal churches in this country which have adopted these customs is very small, not more than half a dozen. The change which ritualism, so called, has introduced relates to the mode of performing the service, and not its substance, and, as a general thing, may be said to consist in monotoning or singing it to appropriate music, in adorning the Lord's table with symbolic lights, in surpliced choristers, and priests vested in some distinctive way to mark their respective orders. Its advocates claim that in regard to the mode of performing the prescribed service of their church, as well as to those doctrines which are not considered essential to salvation, the Episcopal Church has made no legal provision to compel uniformity; they appeal to the minute directions given by God for the tabernacle, and the use of vestments, lights and incense, derived from the temple service by the Greek, Oriental, Roman, and other churches; and further allege that with the advance of civilization, more pleasure is taken in pictures, music and works of art; and that it is right to appeal to every faculty which God has given to men to draw them to His service. The ritualistic movement, however, in this country seems to occupy much more space in the newspapers, just at this moment, than in the church.—We have said thus much simply to explain what is meant by ritualism, as defined by its advocates.

What is of much more general interest to the American public is that this Episcopal General Convention, comprising as fair a representation of intellect, moral and social worth and influence as ever has been assembled in any ecclesiastical organization in this country, was composed of delegates from all the States of the Union, and that their intercourse was as fraternal and harmonious as before the war. This reunion is a cheering sign of the times, and it is to be hoped may be followed by that of all the religious bodies in the country, till the ecclesiastical strands, the rupture of which preceded political dissolution, may be all knit together again, and exert their combined influence to bring back the ship of State to its old moorings.—Bal. Sun.

"DON'T YOU 'MEMBER ME NOW?"—An individual, possessing unmistakable evidence of African extraction, was dignified, but with severe presence, "Are you guilty or not?" he inquired.

"Sar?"

"Did you steal these clothes?" he repeated.

"Golly, boss, 'clar never done it."

"This man says you did."

"He aint nothin' but white trash."

"And what are you?"

"Me! Why, don't you know me? I rid wid you in de percession. I helped to tote you home when you got tired dat night. Don't you 'member me now?"

There was the "suddenest" sol. pros. in that darkey's case that judicial annals afford an example of. So much for the advantages of good society.—New Orleans Picayune.

Western Division of the W. N. C. Railroad.

MEETING OF COMMISSIONERS.

PURSUANT TO PREVIOUS NOTICE, THE General Commissioners heretofore appointed to open Books for subscription to the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, met at the town of Morganton, in the Court House in said town, on the 15th day of October, 1868.

On motion of Gen. M. S. Littlefield, Hon. A. T. Davidson was called to the Chair, and R. F. Simonton appointed Secretary.

The roll of Commissioners was then called, when it was ascertained that a majority of said Commissioners were present.

On motion of Gen. M. S. Littlefield, a Committee of three was appointed by the Chair, consisting of Gen. R. M. Henry, G. W. Swepson and Dr. S. L. Love, to inspect the books of subscription returned by the Commissioners, to ascertain what amount of stock had been subscribed.

On motion of Gen. R. M. Henry, it was resolved that said Committee be instructed to declare all stock subscribed on which 5 per cent had not been paid heretofore, or at this time, void.

Said Committee retired, and after a short time reported that 3,086 shares, of $100 each, had been subscribed, amounting to $308,000, on which the 5 per cent. had been paid, to wit: $15,400.

It was then ordered that the books of subscription reported by the Commissioners be turned over to the Stockholders.

On motion, the Commissioners' meeting then adjourned.

On motion, the Stockholders proceded to the election of four Directors, to wit: Hon. A. T. Davidson, Gen. T. L. Clingman, G. M. Roberts and Jas. H. Merrimon, Esq.

Resolved, That the by-laws of the Eastern Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad be adopted as the by-laws of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, so far as they are locally applicable, and that a Committee be appointed to draft by-laws and report at the next meeting.

FOR CONGRESS,

HON. SION H. ROGERS, OF WAKE.

TO-DAY!

Our words of appeal, this morning, can reach no further than our fellow-citizens of Raleigh. Of course, with a large majority registered against us in the City,—a majority increased by the registration of negro soldiers, stationed here on temporary duty,—we cannot expect to do more than cut down the former mongrel majority. We may not be able, perhaps, to do even that, in view of the fact that negroes have been imported here, in large numbers, from the county, to register and to vote. But we can do our duty, at all events, like men and patriots! We can WORK unceasingly, unremittingly, earnestly, in the good cause,—AND WE MUST DO IT! When the sun goes down, this evening, let it set on duty discharged by every true man in our midst,—young and old!

TO THE POLLS, FELLOW CITIZENS! Let every man see that his friend and neighbor has voted! Let us omit no honorable expedient to influence men to vote with us. WORK—WORK—WORK—from the rising to the setting sun!!

Our noble women—our mothers, wives, daughters, and sisters,—who have been insulted and villified by the organ of the Radical party, appeal to us, this day, to acquit ourselves like men! They will accompany our efforts with their prayers. Let us prove ourselves worthy of them!

WHAT NEXT?

We have done our duty for the cause of liberty, the Constitution and the Union.—We have presented the issues in the pending canvass earnestly, honestly and fairly. We may have erred, both in the spirit with which we have maintained the canvass, and in the convictions and motives which have prompted us, but we have felt we were right, and still believe that we are right, beyond a doubt. Nor do we expect to fail in our efforts. We may fail, but we feel confident, if the people of this nation can appreciate the real issues and the facts involved in the contest, to-day, that SEYMOUR and BLAIR will be triumphantly elected. We desire their election from no sordid motives. Mere personal gains have not influenced our action. We would gladly surrender every individual pecuniary interest we have on earth, if, by so doing, we could elect Seymour and Blair; and we would do this, simply because we honestly believe that the true, permanent interests of the people, of liberty, of the Union and of the Constitution, are only safe in the custody of those whom they represent. In saying this, we do not question General Grant's desire to do what he believes to be right, or his patriotism, but, having committed himself to the control and guidance of the Radical party, we look for no good from him. Nor do we question the patriotism of many Radicals, who are unwittingly sustaining the party, but we have no confidence in the leaders who have shaped and controlled its policy, and who will still control it.

Should we be beaten, contrary to our expectations and hopes, we shall do as we have always done,—obey the laws under which we live, but still labor and hope for the day, when the Constitution of our fathers shall be restored, and when every man, white and black, in the land, shall be protected by it. The world never looked upon a government equal to ours, till Radicalism and fanaticism and partizan violence ruined it.

Our duty, to-day, is,—and it is the duty of every citizen of North Carolina,—to register and to vote, and to persuade others to vote with us. Let every man stand to his colors, and work and hope for success! Men who are weak-kneed, fearing defeat, must pluck up courage. Never waver at the point of success. Rally, RALLY, and all will be well!!

DIRECT TRADE.—The first Steamer of the direct line between Charleston and Liverpool arrived at Charleston on the 30th, and will sail on the 15th, inst. Others will follow semi-monthly. This is encouraging.

U. S. OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS.

A number of the officers, (including Gen. Miles, Col. Churr, Maj. Gattis and Chaplain Pepper,) and soldiers of the colored regiment, (40th U. S.,) on military duty in this District, have registered in this city, as voters and will no doubt cast their votes for Presidential Electors and for a member of Congress to-day. Other officers and soldiers of this regiment in other parts of the State, we presume, will also be instructed to do so. If this is right and according to law, so far from urging any objection to it, we should not complain; for we hold that it is the duty of every man, white and black, entitled BY LAW to register and vote, to do so, and to vote as his convictions of duty prompt.

But we have heard no lawyer or citizen express an opinion, who does not believe that it is a violation of law for them either to register and vote, or for the Registrar to admit them to registration. The most eminent lawyers of this city unhesitatingly declare that the violation of law is PALPABLE in this case. The ground upon which they propose to register and vote, and upon which the Registrar admits them to register, is, that the laws and Constitution of North Carolina do not prohibit them. The Constitution reads thus:

"Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized, twenty-one years old or upward, who shall have resided in this State twelve months next preceding the election, and thirty days in the County in which he offers to vote, shall be deemed an elector."

The Registrar, it seems, claims that "shall have resided in the State," twelve months, simply means having been in the State twelve months, but our lawyers maintain that the words of the Constitution must have their uniform legal and generally-accepted meaning applied to them, and that the expression, "shall have resided" in the State, not only means that they have been in the State, but that it is their domicil or home, and that, in legal phrase, they must have had the animus manendi, i. e. the intention to remain here. Now an officer or soldier in the U. S. army, on military duty, being subject to be removed at any moment by the military authorities, and being only sent into this State for special military duty, cannot have such a residence here as is plainly contemplated by the verbiage of the Constitution.

Moreover, it is plain, if the construction put upon the Constitution, in this instance, is correct, it would be the easiest thing in the world for the General of the Army, being a candidate himself, or anxious to promote the interest of another, to order the army into any State he might deem proper, and thus control the national or Congressional elections, as he thought fit. "Where there is a will, there is a way," it is said.

Heretofore, the honored custom of the officers and soldiers of the United States Army has been, studiously to avoid participating in elections, unless they claimed to be at home, on that day. So uniform has been that custom, that we have never known it to be departed from, till now. Indeed the idea very generally prevails, that either the army regulations or the laws of the United States prohibit it, except where the officer or soldier is at his permanent residence.—Hence, most persons look upon this matter as highly injudicious and blameable on the part of the Registrar and those officers who ought better to understand the law, AND THAT IT IS AN INDICTABLE MATTER!

GERMANS IN THE SOUTH.

A well considered and spirited address has been published by the Germans of the South, and dedicated to their fellow-men in the North and West. They declare that the appeal is made neither as Democrats nor Republicans, but as Germans in distress and danger, who have a right to claim and expect succor and help from their brethren in other parts of the Union. They announce as a fact that the South hitherto has been, and is still, systematically calumniated; that the people of the South—the inhabitants of the former Confederate States—are generally represented as a lawless people; that neither the life nor the property of Union men are safe in the South, and that peace and harmony can only be maintained by military force. These accusations they brand as false in all particulars, and declare that the Germans, who at all times have been true friends of the Union, are treated in such a manner as to bring forth a blush of indignation upon the check of every son of the Father-land in the nation. They then record the fact that under the present political system the Germans are placed in every respect beneath the negro.

THREE "BLANK" PATRIOTS.

We learn that Grissom, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, old Pilgrim Ashley, and "Gov." Holden's man Friday, W. R. Richardson, went out, on Saturday, to address a Mass Meeting at Franklin's, which had been extensively advertised for several weeks. On the way out, in anticipation of a large audience, it was duly arranged between the three expectant orators, that Grissom should lead, Ashley should follow, and Richardson should "rouslcate." When the three got on the ground, there was not a living soul—white or black, big or little—to welcome or to hear them! Fancy their "phecliuks." They were like the three wise men of Gotham, "who went to sea in a bowl:"

"If the bowl had been stronger,
Our tale had been longer."

SLAVERY RESTORED!

The paper which wages war on the virtue of Southern women paraded a device, on yesterday, which heads the Radical ticket. It is a cut of a Cotton-screw, with negroes (hard-looking caricatures of Cuffee, at that,) "toting" up baskets of cotton, while an overseer looks on to see the work well done. Pie, Woman Insulter; this is suggestive of the days of slavery, which you are in the habit of "thanking God" are gone forever.

BE ON THE ALERT, friends of Seymour and Blair! See that all our friends REGISTER AND VOTE!

MR. SEYMOUR ON ANDREW JOHNSON.

I have no political prejudices in favor of Mr. Johnson. He is not one I helped to place in office; nor have I ever advised him or been consulted by him as to his policy.—I know he has been cheated and betrayed by those about him, who plotted his destruction from the outset. But, while he has been most unhappy in his friends, no man has been so fortunate in his enemies. They have given him a high place in history, as one who suffered for the rights of the American people; and when he shall go to his final account, and his friends seek in clear, terse, and lasting terms to tell that he was a man who loved his country and was hated by the corrupt and treasonable, they have to chisel upon his tomb-stone that he was impeached by this House of Representatives and condemned by this Senate.

THE CONGRESS IMPEACHED BY THE PEOPLE.

But there is another impeachment to be tried before a more august tribunal than the Senate. We arraign the Congress before the people of these United States for its crimes against liberty; against the Union; against the rights of our citizens. We impeach it in the words of our fathers against the British Crown in the Declaration of Independence—because it "has rendered the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power;" because it has "erected a multitude of new offices, and sent swarms of officers to harrass our people and eat out their substance." We impeach it "for depriving us in many cases of the benefits of trial by jury;" "for taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the powers of our Government;" "for suspending Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate in all cases whatsoever." Beyond the crimes charged by our fathers against the British Crown, we also impeach Congress for its gross and continued violation of the solemn declaration made to the American people, and to the world, that it waged war upon the South for the sole purpose of restoring our Union, which Union it now keeps sundered for selfish, party, and corrupt purposes. We also impeach it as an enemy to the liberties of the American people, when it seeks to take away the protection of the judiciary and rob us of the freedom of speech.—Albany, N. Y., March 11, 1868.

DEMOCRACY ALONE CAPABLE OF GOOD GOVERNMENT.

Let us then appeal to the virtue of our people. I believe that now they ponder by their firesides upon that time when, under Democratic rule, we had honest officials, economy in affairs, and a currency of sterling coin. I believe their hearts are stirred with indignation at the outrages now perpetrated at Washington. Let us, then, write in letters of gold the words "honor, honesty and economy" upon one side of the folds of our flags, and, upon the other, "freedom of speech and an independent judiciary." Then lift our standard high and march on. The path of honor is the path to victory.—Ibid.

ONE CURRENCY FOR ALL.

It is clear to every thoughtful man that public safety and honor will not admit of our having two kinds of currency for any length of time. We must have a uniform currency for all classes. There is but one question to be settled: Shall our currency be uniformly good or uniformly bad? Are we to force the bondholders to take bad money, or are we to give to labor and business good money? Are we to have an honest standard of value for all, or is industry, enterprise, and morality to be perplexed and disordered by a shifting and disordered standard?—Cooper Institute, N. Y., June 25, 1868.

MAKE PAPER AS GOOD AS GOLD.

There is another way of lifting up our greenbacks to par which will not harm any, but will help all; which will bring back confidence; will revive business and enterprise; will lighten taxation; will give to labor honest money and will do justice to the public creditor. And that way is to give to the world full faith in the honor and wisdom of the American Government.—Ibid.

WITH THE PUBLIC MONEY PAY THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The whole question is brought down to this clear point: shall we use our money to pay our debts, relieve the tax payer, make our money good in the hand of the laborer or pensioner, and help the bondholder; or shall we use it to keep up military despotism, feed idle negroes, break down the judiciary, shackle the executive, and destroy all constitutional rights?—Ibid.

THE RADICALS PUFFED TO BURSTING WITH POWER.

It has been the misfortune of the Republican party that the events of the past few years have given it so much power that it has been able to shackle the executive, to trammel the judiciary, and to carry out the views of the most unwise and violent of its members. When this state of things exists in any party it has ever been found that the sober judgments of its ablest leaders do not control. There is hardly an able man who helped to build up the Republican organization, who has not within the past three years warned it against its excesses, who has not been borne down and forced to give up his convictions of what the interests of the country called for; or, if too patriotic to do this, who has not been driven from its ranks.—Letter accepting Presidential nomination, August 4th. 1868.

SOUTHERN PROSCRIPTION REACTS NORTHWARD.

Now, admitting all they (the Republicans) claim, admitting that the people of the South deserve punishment, that it is right, just and fair to hold them in rigid restraint, is that a reason why the people of Connecticut, who have always been loyal, should be pubished? Yet the punishment which the Republicans pretend to allot to the South falls equally upon the North.—Indeed, the North seems to get the worst of it.—Bridgeport, Conn., April 3, 1868.

RADICAL WORSE THAN BRITISH TYRANNY.

The day was when the man within the sound of my voice had not seen a General Government officer except a postmaster.—He did not know the General Government except for the benefits which it conferred upon him; but to-day you know nothing else. It haunts you at every point, at every turn. It afflicts us in every portion of our land, and now, for the first time, when you tread the streets of our cities you find men shrinking away as if there was some undefined fear, as if there was some doubt, some danger of some spy lurking about to discover mistakes in their accounts, as if there were dread of some vindictive official who, with virtuous indignation, enforces the penalty or compromises the matter for his share of the spoils. I say that which every business man knows, I don't care what his politics may be, when I assert that the whole business interests of the country are placed at the mercy of corrupt officials; we are in the condition that our fathers complained of when they impeached George III., because he had sent swarms of officials to eat out the substance of the people.—Ibid.

NATIONAL NOT SECTIONAL LEGISLATION.

Are we to have no regard for the thirty millions of the people of the North? Are we to legislate alone with regard to its effect upon the five millions of persons in the South, holding up that only before the public gaze, and disregarding how it affects the people of the North?—Ibid.

"Tens of thousands of men in this State, who were true to the Union during the darkest days of the war, have since declared that they never will vote for a secessionist. —Woman Insulter.

Then those of them, who voted for Holden, and who will now vote for Badham and Rufus Barringer, as Electors, have done, and will do, so, with a falsehood on their lips. Holden was the first man in North Carolina, who advocated the doctrine of secession publicly, as the Standard files will show. The statement that Sion H. Rogers was a secessionist, the people of Wake know to be a lie.

THE VOTE IN INDIANA.—The Radicals in Indiana on the State ticket have a majority of only nine hundred and sixty-one—this is official.

On the vote for Congressmen, the Democrats have a majority of one hundred and thirty-three.

These are the majorities out of a total vote of three hundred and forty-two thousand one hundred and eighty-nine.

NORTH CAROLINA

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

F. G. Evans, lying on the Yadkin River, at Holtsburg, in Davidson County, containing about 160 acres, more or less. A large proportion of said Land is cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a number of plank houses formerly used as negro houses, barns, &c.

Also, a building Lot of 8 acres, with two small buildings and a Barn. Also, an undivided one-third interest in about 700 acres, more or less, of fine farming Land lying around Holtsburg on the Yadkin River, upon which is a fine Water Power inexhaustible as the Yadkin itself.

The improvements consist of a frame Dwelling House with five rooms, and all necessary out-houses for servants, carriage-house, &c. A large proportion of the place is ditched and drained and under cultivation, and is admirably adapted to cotton, corn, oats, hay, and all the products of this climate. There are also on the place large quantities of pine and cypress timber. Bryce's Creek, which is navigable, runs through the place, and on it and near the dwelling House is a very fine water-power where Col. E. had large Grist and Saw Mills, which were destroyed during the war.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $250 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of thirty-three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or in a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

REGISTRATION.—Registration in this City, up to a late hour, yesterday afternoon, footed up about as follows:

Whites	906
Blacks	1,484
Total	2,390

It will be observed that the negro registration has increased in a larger ratio than the white, since our last notice. This is owing to the fact that some forty negro soldiers, stationed temporarily here, were allowed to register, on yesterday. This is universally considered to be a great outrage.

The white men of the City have done their duty nobly, in the matter of registration.

SWIFT CREEK MASS MEETING.

We remarked, on yesterday, that the Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Martin Jones,' on Saturday, gotten up under the auspices of the earnest and patriotic men of the Swift Creek Seymour and Blair Club, was a glorious affair. It was so, in every respect, and our friends of Swift Creek deserve all praise for the completeness of their arrangements and the spirit and efficiency with which they were carried out. We should estimate the crowd present on the occasion at between eight and nine hundred—of which number over two hundred were ladies.

At an early hour, the Panther Branch Club arrived, and was welcomed, in a spirited manner, by that gallant young Democrat, Col. L. D. Stephenson, who was very handsomely replied to by Dr. A. E. Smith. Soon after, the Buckhorn Club reached the ground, and were welcomed, in a chaste and well conceived address, by Capt. Wm. E. Pierce. On the part of the Club, Wm. B. Jones, Esq., happily acknowledged the reception. And yet again, the Middle Creek Club came dashing up, and were very felicitously received by N. J. Whitaker, Esq., who was replied to, in a hearty, earnest manner, by G. H. Alford, Esq. Each delegation was accompanied by a number of ladies in carriages.

The first speech,—and it has never been our good fortune to hear a more powerful and masterly effort,—was made by the Hon. Thomas Bragg. For nearly two hours, he kept the attention of the audience fixed by a compact, forcible argument, a scathing exposition of Radicalism, in all its phases, State and National, and occasional thrilling bursts of eloquence.

Maj G. H. Wilder, in his practical, earnest way, next addressed the people. His remarks were forcible, pointed and well-received.

The dinner, which was now announced, was most bountiful and neatly served. It is needless to say that it was fully appreciated.

After dinner, M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., spoke in his usual vigorous, trenchant and stirring style, dealing terrible blows upon the mongrels. His remarks were received with great enthusiasm.

Seaton Gales, Esq., followed, in an invocation to duty,—active, unremitting exertion,—on the part of the good and true men who were present.

Stephen Rand (colored) next made a sensible and telling speech to the men of his own color present.

Three hearty cheers for Seymour, Blair and Rogers closed the enjoyment and exercises of the day.

BEAST BUTLER OUTDONE!—The question has been asked, which is the most atrocious and dastardly: Beast Butler's infamous General Order No. 10, issued when he was in New Orleans, or the libel of the Radical organ on the ladies of North Carolina and of the South? We answer unhesitatingly that Beast Butler was beaten for once; and that the Radical organ in this State reached, in this matter, a depth of depravity, which would make even the Beast blush!

TO BE HUNG.—Willis, the negro soldier, who murdered Anderson Selby, in this City, last winter, is to suffer the extreme penalty of the law, on Friday. The execution, as here tofore stated, is to be private.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will open its session at Statesville, in this State, on Wednesday, the 2d. of December. Bishop Wightman will preside.

STATE MATTERS.

The Goldsboro Messenger says that the negroes are still drilling in the suburbs of Goldsboro two or three nights out of every week. "Col." Kurtis Brogden is carrying out the instructions contained in the "Circular Letter" from Washington.

Hood, the negro preacher from Cumberland, delivered a sing-song incendiary harangue, in Wilmington, on Thursday night last. Among other violent declarations of implacable hatred to the whites, he proposed to "fight them with the ballot-box, or the cartridge box," or in any conceivable manner.

The steamer Silver Wave, plying on the Roanoke between Weldon and Norfolk, continues to improve in her transportation of freight both ways, and it is evident that the enterprize has already proved a success.

J. G. Scott, of Robeson, has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for the Senate in the Twelfth District, vice Wm. A. Allen, declared ineligible; and Capt. J. C. McMillan has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives in Duplin, vice Isaac B. Kelly, Esq., also banned by the Howard Amendment.

The Roanoke News says that an unusual number of deer are roaming the woods in Halifax this Fall. A gentleman, a few days since, saw eight of them in one gang.

Last week was an active and earnest week among the Democrats of Fayetteville. Several meetings were held, which were addressed by Gov. Worth, H. A. London, Jr., Esq., of Chatham, Allen McCaskell, Esq., Col. J. A. Oates, J. C. Blocker, Esq., and others.

Col. Wm. J. Clarke has got "something." He has been appointed, by the Radical Board of Trustees of the Newbern Academy, Principal of that Institution.

Maj. Exum Lewis, of Weldon, has obtained the agency for the "Mad Stone" and is desirous of testing its properties before offering it to the public. This stone is supposed to be a remedy for the bite of venomous reptiles or insects.

The following rich advertisement appears in the Fayetteville Eagle. "Jones" has rather the worst of this "roparsnips," we think:

"De disholution of coparsnips heretofo resting twixt me and Moses Jones in de barber profession, am heretofore resolved.—Pussons who ose de firm mus pay to de scriber. Dem what de firm ose mus call on Jones, as de firm is insolved."

A great Democratic Mass Meeting was held at Lilesville, Anson Co., last Wednesday. An immense concourse of people,—including a large number of ladies,—was present. Speeches were made by Col. W. C. Smith, Hon. O. P. Meares, James C. Dobbin, Esq., Col. W. L. Steele, Col. R. T. Bennett and Col. W. M. Pickett.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce says:

"Mr. Henry T. Foscue, living on Adam's Creek, has had stolen from him, within the last few days, three cows, several hogs, and all the cotton he has picked out this season, in all several hundred pounds. The thieves are unknown. As Adam's Creek is a large Radical precinct, it is but fair to presume that the thieves were of that party. It is somewhat remarkable that no thieving takes place except where the Radicals are in large numbers."

Newbern has a large and increasing rice trade. Not less than 5,000 bushels have already been brought there, and the amount will probably reach 10,000 before the season closes. It sells readily at $1,10 per bushel, unhulled.

THE ELECTION.

What the People of the Several States Will Vote for To-day.

Besides voting for Presidential Electors, to-day, the people of several of the States will choose their State officers, Legislators, Congressmen, &c., and in a few States the question of amending the State Constitution is submitted to the popular vote.

The following States will vote for Governor and other State officers, and for members of one or both Houses of their State Legislature:

New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, Kansas and Nevada. Iowa will elect its Legislature and also its State officers, with the exception of Governor. Wisconsin and Minnesota will elect their Legislatures, but will not vote for State officers. Of the Legislatures thus to be elected, those of the following States will each choose a United States Senator: New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri and Nevada. The present Senators whose terms expire are: Edwin D. Morgan, Chas. Sumner, Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, Zachariah Chandler, James R. Doolittle, Alex. Ramsey, Jno. B. Henderson and Wm. M. Stewart.

The following States will elect Congressmen: New York, California, Delaware, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Arkansas, Louisiana, North Carolina and South Carolina. These States will elect one hundred and thirty-nine members.

The people of New Hampshire are to decide whether a convention shall be held to propose amendments to the State Constitution. At present the two Houses of its Legislature are strangely disproportionate in members; the Senate having only twelve members, while the House has 350. It is proposed to reduce the number of Representatives and increase the number of Senators. It is also proposed to abolish all religious tests for holding office, and make provision for future amendments of the Constitution.

The people of Illinois will also vote on the question whether a Convention shall be called to revise the State Constitution.

In Minnesota, three proposed amendments to the State Constitution are submitted to the vote of the people. The first provides for extending the suffrage to the colored man, and also to persons of mixed white and Indian blood, who have adopted the language, customs and habits of civilization, and have been declared, after an examination by a District Court, competent to exercise the rights of citizenship; the second relates to the disposal of the "internal improvement lands;" and the third abolishes the Grand Jury system.

The citizens of Iowa will vote upon the question whether the word white shall be stricken from the clause relating to the suffrage in the Constitution. The question is submitted to the people of Missouri.

THE CHARLOTTE MASS MEETING.—About six thousand persons, including about one thousand fair ladies, were assembled in Charlotte, on Friday, on occasion of the great Mass Meeting and Barbecue. In the morning, the vast crowd was addressed by Col. E. G. Haywood, of this City, and Hon. Z. B. Vance. The Times says:

"The meeting was called to order by Col. H. C. Jones, who, in a few appropriate remarks, introduced Col. Ed. Graham Haywood of Raleigh, who proceeded to argue the constitutionality of the Reconstruction Acts. We followed the learned and able speaker closely, and cannot see how a single one of his conclusions could be controverted. It would be impossible to make an abstract of this magnificent argument. The Colonel has no superior as a lawyer, and this speech would reflect credit on the ablest statesman in the land. The language, while ornate, was severely chaste and classic, and the flights of eloquence sublime. The reference to the Confederacy was equal to anything in the language. All who followed the arguments were convinced that the Democratic view of this measure was right, and in their hearts thanked the able, masterly expositor of the law—of the cause.

After the Colonel had concluded the Band played an inspiring air.

Gov. Vance was then called for most vociferously. It is not necessary for us to say more of this speech than that it was one of the happiest of the Governor's numerous efforts. This "favorite of the people" is by nature the most richly endowed of any man we ever heard—and to say he is the best stump speaker of the age is solid truth. He spoke an hour and a half, and from the first to the last word was applauded. Though the dinner was waiting, cries of "go on!" rang from every bench.—Such a man and such a speech are the pride and glory of the State."

The dinner—which was spread on a table 1,000 feet long,—was most bountiful and substantial.

At night, there was a grand torch-light procession, in which hundreds of beautiful and suggestive transparencies were displayed, and a brilliant display of fire-works illuminated the city. Speeches were made, in the course of the evening, by Maj. Montgomery, of Cabarrus, Col. J. F. Hoke, of Lincoln, Col. H. C. Jones, Col. Osborne, Capt. R. P. Waring, Col. Brown, A. Brevard, Esq., and Gen. Jno. A. Young.

Good News from Chatham!—Enthusiastic Meeting!!

PITTSBORO', Oct. 31, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—One of the largest meetings ever held in this county took place here to day. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, the people came in crowds. Hon. S. H. Rogers, our gallant candidate for Congress, was first introduced by Jno. Manning, Esq. I would do injustice to Col. Rogers, were I to attempt to report his effort. Suffice it to say, that it was one of those noble efforts, seldom equalled and never surpassed. Few men have a happier manner of discussing the great questions of law, which are involved in this campaign, than Col. Rogers, while his well known honesty of purpose, kindness of heart and sagacity of mind convinced every one that he was right. And yet, after one of the clearest, soundest, and most eloquent arguments I ever listened to, as argument that convinced every one who heard it, and gave hope to those who needed no argument, how shall I describe his excoriation of Radicalism, and of Deweese, as its chosen expounder? Reading from the Standard and other "standard" literature of the party, no decent man, white or black, could have listened to it and then voted the Radical ticket. Judge, Messrs. Editors, of the plainness of his strictures, when, reading from Deweese's speech, in many instances, he used this strong language: "He (Deweese) lied deliberately when he uttered it; knew he was lying, and, in addition to his lying, knew he was slandering the good people of North Carolina." Many men might have used these expressions, and they would have passed by as the ebullition of the moment; but when Sion H. Rogers used them, they were deliberately uttered, and were intended to mean just what they literally did mean. Truly, he has no foeman worthy of his steel. I know not, taken all together, that I ever heard a better effort. No North Carolinian could have listened to it, without being proud of such a man. Mr. Rogers closed amid great applause from the freemen of Chatham, and the waving of handkerchiefs from the fair ladies.

Col. W. J. Green, of Warren, our noble candidate for Elector, was next introduced to the vast audience in a happy style by H. A. London, Jr., Esq. Col. Green is one of those fearless, indomitable men, who never compromise or parley with an unprincipled foe. He handled the great issues involved with a masterly hand. His vindication of the Democratic party, its objects, aims and purposes, was such as must have touched even the most stubborn conscience. Full of fire, ardor, and that eloquence, which rouses the multitude, few more effective speeches have been made in this campaign.

After the eloquent effort of Col. Green, the vast concourse repaired to the ample feast, where all were fed.

Afterwards, owing to the inclement weather, the people were addressed in the Court House, by J. J. Jackson, Esq., the old wheel-horse of Democracy in Chatham.—Being prevented, by pressing business, from hearing all of Mr. Jackson's effort, your correspondent is unable to say much of it; but this he may say, that nothing comes from Mr. Jackson except such as is good, wholesome, wise and able.

At night, bonfires blazed in the streets, symbolic of the great fires of liberty in the hearts of the people of Chatham. The crowd having assembled in the Court House were first addressed by Maj. York, who was followed by Capt. C. B. Denson. I would do real injustice to Mr. Denson to attempt to even sketch his effort. Chaste, elegant, able, argumentative, it marked the ability and literary attainments of the man. I wish that every man in North Carolina could have heard his historical sketch of the fall of free government.

The immense mass meeting was presided over by John Manning, Jr., Esq. Nothing need be said of his manner, for it was that of a gentleman of marked ability, one ready and fit for any position. Great credit is due to the marshals for the good order maintained.

Amid enthusiastic cheers for the success of our cause, at a late hour the great mass meeting adjourned.

One thing may be counted on: Chatham will, in this election, be worthy the name she bears. We shall carry the county; we shall give Rogers, I think, at least five hundred majority over the Deweese Indiana carpet-bagger. He stands no chance at all. The colored men, even, cannot be prevailed on to vote for him. Set down Chatham all right. She will stand on the 3d "redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled" from Radicalism. PITT.

NATURALIZATION.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2, M.

Judge Reed, in the Court of Nisi Prius, delivered, this morning, in a naturalization case, an opinion closing as follows:

"Under this state of facts, I can come to but one conclusion, that the whole issue of naturalization certificates, by the Nisi Prius branch of the Supreme Court, is contrary to the Act of Congress and Act of Assembly, and should be rejected at the polls. And I make the following order, and now, Nov. 2 1868, it is ordered, that no more aliens be naturalized in this Court."

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2, P. M.

Warrants for twenty-three millions seven hundred and thirty-five thousand, in coin, were issued from the Treasury, to-day, to pay the interest of five-twenties.

Rousseau telegraphs Schofield that all is quiet in New Orleans. No apprehensions for to-morrow.

Reports from Agents of the Freedmen's Bureau have been received, including that of General Hatch, from Louisiana, who says:

"It is mainly owing to the incompetency, insufficiency and misconduct of the civilian employees of the Bureau, that it has become so unpopular, and the freedmen suffer so much in many of the Parishes.

The failure of the crops, during the past two years, has prevented many of the planters from paying their hands, but the negroes seem not discouraged. Working for shares has proved a failure, and wages are being generally paid. The crops, this year, have been excellent,—the failure of cotton, the two previous years, having caused the planters to turn their attention to grain.—This year the cotton crop has not been a failure. The health of the negroes has been good. There are four hundred and eighty thousand blacks in the State."

Hatch sums up his criminal calendar and shows one hundred and sixty-six murders have been committed, and two hundred and twenty-five other outrages, during the past year. In common with the rest, he urges the continuance of the Bureau, on the ground that it is necessary for the welfare of the negroes, (to say nothing of Hatch.—SENTINEL.)

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2, P. M.

The case of C. B. Lamar against Charles A Dana, for one hundred thousand dollars, damages for false imprisonment during the war, came up to-day, in the Supreme Court.

A motion was made to have the order for removing the case to the Supreme Court set aside. Decision reserved.

REGISTRATION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2, P. M.

Superintendent Kennedy has issued a General Order, directing the police to take the prisoners arrested for illegal voting before the United States Commissioner instead of the city and State Courts. Two Police Commissioners have issued counter-instructions.

Registration of the city foots up one-hundred and sixty-nine thousand.

FROM ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 2, P. M.

The Legislature met to-day. A quorum was not present in either House, and they adjourned till to-morrow.

Both parties are showing great activity. The Streets of this city are now crowded with negroes from the country. A great many of them are minors. The election law forbids, under a pain of fine and imprisonment, any challenging of voters in this State!

FROM GEORGIA.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 2, P. M.

Both parties claim that they will have a majority in the election to-morrow. Canvassing is progressing quietly.

THE LATE HINDS TRAGEDY.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2, P. M.

The Republican has a dispatch from Arkansas, stating that Hinds' death was the result of a difficulty about a woman.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Nov. 2, P. M.

A formal dissolution of Parliament occurred on the 11th.

Several distinct earthquakes in the Western counties in Europe and Wales have been felt.

NEGRO VOTES.—Negroes who cannot read, write or spell their names are now the law makers of South Carolina, Louisiana, Florida, Arkansas, and other reconstructed States. As in South Carolina they vote millions of taxes upon white people, sell their votes to railroad corporations to get them per diem pay. See what the negroes have done in Florida in denying the people of the State the right to vote for Electors of President and Vice-President on the day of election. Most of the negroes, being ignorant, are controlled by the white carpet-baggers, who deem it no shame to arouse hatred against their friends, in order that, as vagrants, they may ride into office upon the backs of negroes. Out upon all such interlopers.—N. Y. Express.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS, ERASTUS H. RAY, AND Christiana D. Ray, his wife, on the 9th day of June A. D., 1868, made and executed a mortgage to Robert G. Lewis to secure the sum of two thousand, two hundred and seventy-nine dollars and forty cents, ($2,279.40) payable to A. T. Stewart & Co., of the City of New York, which mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Wake County, on the 11th day of June, 1868, at 9 o'clock in the afternoon, in Book 36, page 104, and the above sum of $2,279 40 principal and eighteen dollars and twenty-four cents, ($18.24) interest, is due on said mortgage on the 25th day of October—the day of the first publication of this notice; and whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by said mortgage, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of said premises, by virtue of the power contained in the mortgage, which sale will be made by the subscriber at public Auction, at the Court House door, in the City of Raleigh, on the 7th day of November next, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

The following is a description of said mortgaged premises:

One Lot in the City of Raleigh, lying on Wilmington Street, purchased on the 20th day of December, 1860, by the said Erastus H. Ray of John Q. Adams, and described in said Adams' deed as lot No 120 in plan of said City, upon which there is a Brick House erected; being 30 feet 7 inch. e East and West, and fronting on Wilmington street 25 feet with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging; subject, however, to a mortgage heretofore executed to B. Also a tract of Land lying in the County of Wake adjoining the lands of W. H. Cuningim, the late Wm. Hill, and others, bought by said E. H. Ray of John Ray, June 21st, 1867, and containing about 71 acres.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United states as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and so will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union, under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and that of the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burdens of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjugated and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.
